Amendment to the Mormugao Port Employees' (Leave Travel Concession) Regulations, 1964

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 read with section 124(1) and (2) of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963 (38 of 1963), the Board of Trustees of the Port of Mormugao, hereby makes the following regulations further to amend the Mormugao Port Employees' (Leave Travel Concession) Regulations, 1964, namely:—

1. (1) These Regulations may be called the Mormugao Port Employees' (Leave Travel Concession) (First Amendment) Regulations, 1978.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the dates on which they have been effective in the case of Central Government servants.

2. Substitute the following sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 4 for the existing sub-regulation (1) of regulation 4 of the Mormugao Port Employees' (Leave Travel Concession) Regulations, 1964 namely:—

4. Frequency of entitlement: (1) The concession shall be admissible to the employees once in a block of two calendar years for visiting his home town. It shall also be admissible once in a block of four calendar years commencing from the year 1974 to every employee (including those whose home towns are situated within 400 Kilometres or in case of class IV employees 160 Kilometres.) to travel to any place in India, subject to all other conditions laid down in the Leave Travel Concessions Scheme except that the reimbursement of fare may be allowed for the entire distance both ways without any deduction in respect of the first 400/160 Kilometres.

There will, however, be no change in regard to the Leave Travel Concession to home town under which an employee will have to bear the liability in respect of the first 400/160 kms. as the case may be.

If the concession to travel anywhere in India is used, it will be in lieu of, and adjusted against the Leave Travel Concession to home town including the concession, if any carried forward, to which they may be entitled at the time the journey to any place in India is undertaken. Further such employee will be entitled to carry forward the concession to travel to any place in India to the first year of the next block of four years only if they are entitled to a carry forward Leave Travel Concession to home town for that year.

The above concession shall cover the employees and their families as defined hereunder".

No. MPT/IGA(5)/78

Amendment to the Mormugao Port Employees' (Acceptance of Employment after Retirement) Regulations, 1970

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 28 read with Section 124(1) & (2) of the Major Port Trusts, Act, 1963 (38 of 1963), the Board of Trustees of the Mormugao Port Trust, hereby makes the following regulations further to amend the Mormugao Port Employees' (Acceptance of Employment after Retirement) Regulations, 1970 namely:—

1. (1) These regulations may be called the Mormugao Port Employees' (Acceptance of Employment after Retirement) (First Amendment) Regulations, 1978.

(2) They shall come into force with effect from the date on which the Government's approval to these Regulations has been published in the Official Gazette.

2. Substitute the following regulation 3 for the existing regulation 3 of the Mormugao Port Employees' (Acceptance of Employment after Retirement) Regulations, 1970 (hereinafter referred to as the said regulations) namely:—

"3. Permission for employment within India:— (1) If an employee who has held a Class I post under the Board immediately before his retirement (whether governed by Pension or Contributory Provident Fund Scheme of the Board) wishes to accept any employment within India including an employment as Contractor for or in connection with the execution of public works or as an employee of such contractor before the expiry of two years from the date of his retirement, he shall obtain the previous sanction of the competent authority to such acceptance.

Provided that an employee who was permitted by the competent authority to take up such an employment during his leave preparatory to retirement or during refusals leave, shall not be required to obtain subsequent permission for his continuance in such employment after retirement.

(2) An employee who is covered by these regulations and has not obtained the necessary permission shall not be given any such contract and a condition shall be incorporated in the terms of the contract that it is liable to cancellation if either the contractor himself or any of his employee is found to be a person to whom these regulations apply and he had not obtained the necessary permission.

(3) Employees whether governed by Pension or the Provident Fund Regulations, shall be required to sign, at the time of sanctioning the retirement benefits, an undertaking that they shall not seek employment within two years of their retirement without obtaining the previous permission of the competent authority.

(4) Subject to the provisions of sub-regulation (5), the competent authority may, by order in writing, on an application made by an employee grant, subject to such conditions, if any, as it may deem, necessary permission, or refuse for reasons to be recorded in the order, permission to such employee to take up the employment specified in the application.

(5) In granting or refusing permission under sub-regulation (4) to an employee for taking up any employment the competent authority shall have regard to the following factors, namely:—

(a) the nature of the employment proposed to be taken up and the antecedents of the employer;

(b) whether his duties in the employment which he proposed to take up might be such as to bring him into conflict with the Board;

(c) whether the employee while in service had any such dealing with the employer under whom he proposed to seek employment as might afford a reasonable basis for the suspicion that such employee had shown favours to such employer;

(d) whether the duties of the employment proposed involve liaison or contract work with the Board;

(e) whether his duties will be such that his previous official position or knowledge of experience under Board could be used to give the proposed employer an unfair advantage;

(f) the emoluments offered by the proposed employer; and

(g) any other relevant factor.

(6) In respect of employees of the Engineering Department, whether in the executive or administrative side, permission within two years of retirement for seeking employment as contractors or in connection with the execution of works of the Board or as employees of such contractors who are executing such works may be given very rarely and only in special circumstances.

(7) The application for permission to take up an employment within two years of retirement shall be made in the form given in the Annexure.

(8) Where within a period of sixty days of the date of receipt of an application under sub-regulation (5), the competent authority does not refuse to grant the permission applied for or does not communicate the refusal to the applicant, the competent authority shall be deemed to have granted the permission applied for.

(9) Where the competent authority grants the permission applied for subject to any conditions or refuses such permission, the applicant may, within thirty days of the receipt of the order of the competent authority to that effect, make a representation against any such condition or refusal and the competent authority may make such orders thereon as it deemed fit:

Provided that no order other than an order cancelling such condition or granting such permission without any conditions shall be made under this sub-regulation without giving the employee making the representation an opportunity to show cause against the order proposed to be made.

(10) If any employee takes up any employment at any time before the expiry of two years from the date of his retirement without the prior permission of the competent authority or commits a breach of any condition subject to which permission to take up any employment has been granted to him under this regulation, it shall be competent for the competent authority to declare by order in writing and for reasons to be recorded therein that—

(i) if governed by the Pension Scheme of the Board, he shall not be entitled to the whole or such part of the pension for the period during which he is so employed or for such longer period as the competent authority may specify in the order;

(ii) if governed by the Contributory Provident Fund Scheme, he shall be liable to compensate the Board to the extent the competent authority may specify in the order for not honouring the undertaking made earlier to the contrary.

Provided that no such order shall be made without giving the employee concerned an opportunity of showing cause against such declaration.

Provided further that in making any order under this sub-regulation, the competent authority shall have regard to the following factors, namely:

- i) the financial circumstances of the employee concerned;
- ii) the nature of and the emoluments from, the employment taken up by the employee concerned and
- iii) any other relevant factor.

(11) Every order passed by the Competent authority under this regulation shall be communicated to the employee concerned.

(12) In this regulation: —

(a) "employment" means —

- i) an employment in any capacity including that of an agent, under a company, Co-operative Society, firm or individual engaged in trading, commercial, industrial, financial or professional business and includes also a directorship of such company and partnership of such firm, but does not include employment under a body corporate, wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the Government.
- ii) setting up practice, either independently or as a partner of a firm, as adviser or consultant in matters in respect of which the employee —
  - (A) has no professional qualifications and the matters in respect of which the practice is to be set up or is carried on are relatable to his official knowledge or experience, or
  - (B) has professional qualifications but the matters in respect of which such practice is to be set up are such as are likely to give this clients an unfair advantage by reason of his previous official position, or
- iii) has to undertake work involving liaison or contract with the officer or officers of the Board.

Explanation: — For the purpose of this Clause "employment under a co-operative Society" includes the holding of any office, whether elective or otherwise, such as that of President, Chairman, Manager, Secretary, Treasurer and the like, by whatever name called in such Society;

(b) the expression "date of retirement" in relation to an employee, re-employed after retirement, without any break, either in the same or in another Class I post under the Board or in any other equivalent post under Central or State Government, means the date on which such employee finally ceases to be so re-employed in Board or Government service as the case may be."

3. Substitute the following regulation 4 for the existing regulation 4 of the said Regulations, namely: —

4. Permission for employment outside India: — (1) If an employee who has held a Class I post under the Board immediately before his retirement wishes to accept any employment under any Government outside India, he shall obtain the previous permission of the Board for such acceptance, and that —

(a) if governed by the Pension Scheme of the Board, no pension shall be payable to an employee who accepts such an employment without proper permission in respect of any period for which he is so employed or such longer period as the competent authority may direct; and

(b) if governed by the Contributory Provident Fund Scheme of the Board, he shall be liable to compensate the Board to the extent the competent authority may direct.

Provided that an employee who was permitted by the Board to take up a particular form of employment under any Government outside India during his leave preparatory to retirement shall not be required to obtain subsequent permission for his continuance in such employment after retirement.

Explanation: — For the purposes of this rule, the expression "employment under any Government outside India" includes employment under a local authority or corporate or any other institution or organisation which functions under the supervision or control of a Government outside India, or an employment under an International organisation of which the Government of India is not a member.

(2) The employee shall be required to sign an undertaking to this effect at the time of sanctioning retirement benefits."

Amendment to the Mormugao Port Employees' (Leave) Regulations, 1964

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 28 read with Section 124(1) & (2) of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963 (38 of 1963), the Board of Trustees of the Port of Mormugao, hereby makes the following regulations further to amend the Mormugao Port Employees' (Leave) Regulations, 1964 namely: —

1. (1) These Regulations may be called the Mormugao Port Employees' (Leave) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 1978.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the dates on which they have been effective in the case of Central Government servants.

2. Delete clause (1)(d) of Sub-regulation (6) of regulation 7 of the Mormugao Port Employees' (Leave) Regulations, 1964 (hereinafter referred to as the said Regulations).

3. Substitute the following regulation 12 for the existing regulation 12 of the said Regulations, namely: —

"12. Recall to duty before expiry of leave. — In case an employee is recalled to duty before the expiry of his leave, such recall to duty shall be treated as compulsory in all cases and the employee shall be entitled: —

(a) If the leave from which he is recalled is in India, to be treated as on duty from the date on which he starts from the station to which he is ordered, and to draw —

- i) travelling allowance under rules made in this behalf for the journey, and
- ii) leave salary, until he joins his post, at the same rate at which he would have drawn it but for recall to duty.

(b) If the leave from which he is recalled is out of India, to count the time spent on the voyage to India as duty for purposes of calculating leave, and to receive, —

- i) leave salary, during the voyage to India and for the period from the date of landing in India to the date of joining the post at the same rate at which he would have drawn it but for recall to duty;

ii) a free pass to India;

iii) refund of his passage from India if he has not completed half the period of his leave by the date of leaving for India on recall, or three months, whichever is shorter;

iv) travelling allowance, under the rules for the time being in force for travel from the place of landing in India to the place of duty."

4. Introduce the following regulation 12A and 12B after the existing regulation 12 of the said Regulations, namely: —

"12A. Return from leave. — (1) An employee on leave shall not return to duty before the expiry of the period of leave granted to him unless he is permitted to do so by the authority which granted him leave.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulation (1) an employee on leave preparatory to retirement shall be precluded from returning to duty save with the consent of the authority competent to appoint him to the post from which he proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement.

(3) An employee who has taken leave on medical certificate may not return to duty until he has produced a medical certificate of fitness.

(4)(a) An employee returning from leave is not entitled, in the absence of specific orders to that effect, to resume as a matter of course the post which he held before going on leave.

(b) Such employee shall report his return to duty to the authority which granted him leave or to the authority, if any, specified in the order granting him the leave and await orders.

Note: — An employee who had been suffering from tuberculosis may be allowed to resume duty on the basis of Fitness Certificate which recommends light work for him."

"12B. Absence after expiry of leave. — (1) Unless authority competent to grant leave extends the leave, an employee who remains absent after the end of leave is entitled to no leave salary for the period of such absence and that period shall be debited against his leave account as though it were half pay leave, to the extent such leave is due, the period in excess of such leave due being treated as extraordinary leave.

(2) Wilful absence from duty after the expiry of leave render an employee liable to disciplinary action."

5. Substitute the following regulation 6 for the existing regulation 6 of the said Regulations, namely:—

"6. Combination of different kinds of leave. — Except as otherwise provided in these regulations, any kind of leave under these regulations may be granted in combination with or in continuation of any other kind of leave.

Explanation. — Casual leave which is not recognised as leave under these regulations shall not be combined with any other kind of leave admissible under these regulations."

6. Introduce the following regulation 6A and 6B after the existing regulation 6 of the said regulations, namely:—

"6A. Commencement and termination of leave and Combination of holidays with leave. — (1) Except as provided in Sub-regulation (2) of this regulation, leave ordinary begins on the day on which the transfer of charge is effected and ends on the day preceding that on which the charge is resumed.

(2) When the day, immediately preceding the day on which an employee's leave begins or immediately following the day on which his leave expires, is a holiday or one of a series of holidays, the employee may be permitted to leave his station at the close of the day before, or return to it on the day following such holiday or series of holidays.

Provided that —

(a) his transfer or assumption of charge does not involve the handing or taking over of securities or of moneys other than a permanent advance;

(b) his early departure does not entail a correspondingly early transfer from another station of an employee to perform his duties, and

(c) the delay in his return does not involve a corresponding delay in the transfer to another station of the employee who was performing his duties during his absence or in the discharge from Board service of a person temporarily appointed to it.

(3) On condition the departing employee remains responsible for the moneys in his charge, the Head of Department may, in any particular case waive the application of clause (a) of the proviso to sub-regulation (2).

(4) Unless a authority competent to grant leave in any case otherwise directs —

(a) If holidays are prefixed to leave the leave and any consequent rearrangement of pay and allowances take effect from the day after the holiday, and

(b) if holidays are suffixed to leave, the leave is treated as having terminated and any consequent rearrangement of pay and allowances takes effect from the day on which the leave would have ended if holidays had not been suffixed.

Note: — A compensatory leave granted in lieu of duty performed by an employee on Sunday or a holiday for a full day may be treated as a holiday for the above purpose."

"6B. Leave preparatory to retirement. — (1) An employee may be permitted by the authority competent to take leave preparatory to retirement to the extent of earned leave due not exceeding 120 or 180 days as the case may be, as prescribed in regulation 8, together with half pay leave due, subject to the condition that such leave extends upto and includes the day preceding the date of retirement.

Note: — The leave granted as leave preparatory to retirement shall not include extraordinary leave.

(2)(a) Where an employee who is on foreign service in or under any local authority or corporation or company wholly or substantially owned or controlled by the Government or a body controlled or financed by the Government (hereinafter referred to as the local body) applies for leave preparatory to retirement, the decision to grant or refuse such leave shall be taken by foreign employer with the concurrence of the lending authority.

(b) In case the leave is so refused to the employee in public interest, it may be availed of by him to the extent admissible under regulation 7 from the date of his quitting service.

(c) In case the lending authority is not agreeable to the refusal of leave preparatory to retirement, it shall be granted to the employee and if the foreign employer needs the services of the officer during that period, the employee may be re-employed by that employer concurrently with leave preparatory to retirement and leave salary regulated in accordance with the provision of sub-regulation (5) of regulation 14."

Amendment to the Mormugao Port Employees' (Supplementary Leave) Regulations, 1966

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 28 read with Section 124(1) & (2) of the Major Port Trusts Act, 1963 (38 of 1963) the Board of Trustees of the Port of Mormugao, hereby makes the following regulations further to amend the Mormugao Port Employees' (Supplementary Leave) Regulations, 1966, namely:—

1. (1) These Regulations may be called the Mormugao Port Employees' (Supplementary Leave) (First Amendment) Regulations, 1978.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the dates on which they have been effective in the case of Central Government servants.

2. Substitute the following regulations 6 and 7 for the existing regulations 6 and 7 of the Mormugao Port Employees' (Supplementary Leave) Regulations, 1966 (hereinafter referred to as the said Regulations), namely:—

"6. (1) A female employee (including an apprentice) may be granted maternity leave by an authority competent to grant earned leave for a period of 90 days from the date of its commencement. During such period she shall be paid leave salary equal to the pay drawn immediately before proceeding on leave.

(2) Maternity leave may also be granted in case of miscarriage, including abortion, subject to the conditions that —

(a) the leave does not exceed six weeks, and

(b) the application for the leave is supported by a medical certificate from the Chief Medical Officer or Authorised Medical Attendant or a registered Medical practitioner.

Note:— The abortion induced under the Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act, 1971 should also be considered as case of "abortion" for the purpose of granting "Maternity Leave" under these Regulations."

"7. (1) (a) Maternity leave may be combined with leave of any other kind to the extent admissible under the Mormugao Port Employees' (Leave) Regulations, 1964.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in clause (c) of regulation 10 of the Mormugao Port Employees' (Leave) Regulations, 1964, any leave (including commuted leave) for a period not exceeding sixty days, applied for in continuation of maternity leave, may be granted without production of medical certificate.

(2) Leave in further continuation of leave granted under clause (b) of sub-regulation (1) may be granted on production of a medical certificate for the illness of the female employee. Such leave may also be granted in case of illness of a newly born baby, subject to production of medical certificate to the effect that the condition of the ailing baby warrants mother's personal attention and that her presence by the baby's side is absolutely necessary."

(3) The maternity leave shall not be debited against the leave account."

3. Substitute the following regulation 11 for the existing regulation 11 of the said regulations, namely:—

"11. (1) Terminal leave shall not be admissible in the following circumstances:—

(a) where the employee concerned has been dismissed or removed from service; or

(b) to apprentices and persons in non-continuous employment of the Board.

(2) Where the service of an employee not in permanent employ, is terminated by notice or by payment of pay and allowances in lieu of notice, or otherwise in accordance with the terms and conditions of his appointment, he may be granted earned leave to his credit, subject to a maximum of 180 days, even though such leave extends beyond the date on which he ceases to be in service. If the employee himself resigns or quits service, he may be granted earned leave to the extent of half of such leave to his credit subject to a maximum of 90 days.

Provided that the leave so granted to such employee, other than an employee re-employed after the date of retirement does not extend beyond the date of his retirement."
